

KOHL carries on despite cuts

By Kevin Hoover

After a two-month off-the-air hiatus, and despite the ravages of Jarvis-Gann, KOHL(89.3 FM) has emerged anew with a full schedule of program offerings and some fresh features for Tri-City listeners.

Following the passage of Proposition 13 it was feared that budget cutbacks would curtail many aspects of station operations, including the long-awaited transmitter relocation and the nighttime "progressive rock" shows so coveted by broadcasting students.

Fortunately, however, the transmitter move was accomplished without any extra expenditure of funds, enabling the station's signal to be received at greater distances and with enhanced clarity. Moreover, despite the loss of two part-time faculty members and reduction of some broadcasting-related courses, the station is still operating on a full schedule.

Along with such KOHL mainstays as morning Dial-a-Class, afternoon easy listening music, nighttime rock, and thrice-daily newscasts, the "community oriented" campus station intersperses its schedule with a variety of programs and features for the discriminating listener. Among them are:

"Ohlone Job Placement" with Gail Marks (Tuesday at 5:45 p.m.) announces job openings filed by employers with Ohlone's Job Placement office.

"Your Social Security" with Bruce Rogers (Tuesday at 5:45 p.m.) an

"Your Social Security" with Bruce Rogers (Tuesday & Thursday at 5:30 p.m.) responds to written queries on the ins & outs of the Social Security system.

"Exitos Mexicanos" (Monday and Wednesday at 5:30 p.m.) and "La Hora Alegre" (Friday at 6 p.m.) feature music for the Spanish speaking community.

"Mot" Earth News" (4:30 & 9:30 p.m. daily) explores alternative approaches to everyday problems.

"Space News from NASA" (Friday at 5:55 p.m.) examines the goals and accomplishments of America's ongoing program of space research.

Presenting these and other programs are this quarter's KOHL DJ corps, consisting of Kathy Covey, Nick Nulite, Sal Ybarra, Terry

Brown (nee Steven W.), Ken Fields-Teel, Scott Holm, Alice Bernadino, Larry Schultz, Ken Frederick, Jeff Bonds, Pam Passanisi, Craig Wright and Kevin L. Hoover.
